FAQs

about dressing for an interview

How do I find out what the proper attire is for an upcoming interview?

You can contact the human resources department of the company and ask them what is appropriate. Keep in mind that some technical companies encourage their applicants to dress more casually. Ask for clarification as to what is acceptable. Is it khakis and a polo shirt? Slacks and a button-down shirt?

I have an interview scheduled and they told me that I can dress business casual. What should I wear?

Even though an employer tells you that you can wear business casual attire, it is highly recommended that you dress in formal attire. It demonstrates professionalism and maturity.

I can't afford a really expensive suit and I know I have to wear one for interviews. What should I do?

There are many stores available that sell quality suits at discounted prices. Some students will borrow their friend's suit if they have an interview coming up and are not able to go shopping, but your friend's suit may fit you differently. Working Wardrobes offers a package deal for UCI students (see details at <http://www.career.uci.edu/students/working-wardrobes.html>).

What if the recruiters or company employees dress casually during career fairs or on-campus interviews?

Employers want to see if you are able to represent yourself professionally. Therefore it is recommended that you wear formal attire to the interview.

Can I wear a shirt and a tie without a jacket?

Wearing a shirt and tie without a jacket would be considered business casual and is not appropriate for interviews.

Should I wear a skirt suit or a pants suit?

Either a matching skirt or pants suit is acceptable to wear. Make sure that you are comfortable in whichever suit you chose to wear.
