UC IRVINE ALUMNI PROFILE
Maria T. Khan
BA International Studies
Current Graduate Student at Carnegie Mellon

DESCRIBE YOUR CAREER TRAJECTORY SINCE GRADUATION
“After graduating with a degree in International Studies from UC Irvine, I was selected to participate in an intensive, graduate-level public affairs fellowship program. As a Fellow for Coro Southern California, I had the opportunity to view public affairs through the lens of private and public sectors. Over the span of 9 months, I was placed in seven different organizations such as ABC7, LA County Department of Public Works, The Coca-Cola Company, and more.

While I was working full-time, I discovered what skills I brought to the table and what I felt that I was missing. At UC Irvine, I was provided an excellent skill set for ‘why’ learnings. My professional career after UCI focused on ‘what’ learnings. Now that I knew why I was passionate about immigrant issues and what exactly I wanted to work on for immigrant communities, I started asking myself ‘how’ will I contribute to this work?”

WHAT WAS YOUR EXPERIENCE UTILIZING THE CAREER SERVICES AT UCI?
“Take advantage of the career services through the Division of Career Pathways at UC Irvine! I visited numerous times for resume reviews, mock interviews, workshops, internship advice, and more. I received a mock interview before my Coro interview. The feedback and encouragement she provided me truly helped me feel confident during my real interview.”

“Without all the assistance from DCP, I would have had a much more difficult time trying to set myself up for growth opportunities after graduation.”

WHAT IS ONE THING YOU WISH YOU WOULD HAVE DONE OR TAKEN ADVANTAGE OF?
“I never got a chance to attend UCDC! I truly wish I had taken advantage of the opportunity to live and work in DC for a summer!”

DO YOU HAVE ANY ADVICE FOR SOMEONE EXPLORING CAREER PATHS?
“There is no one way to explore career paths! Take time out to do what works for you whether that’s volunteering, reading a book, cultivating mentors, auditing a class, etc.”
Handshake (Job and Internship Listings)
Handshake, the online job posting site for UCI students, lists part-time and full-time jobs, internships, work-study, and summer/seasonal positions. Use Handshake to register for DCP events.

Career Assessments
The Strong Interest Inventory, Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, SkillScan, and Values Survey are tools to help you gather information for career decision making.

CREATE YOUR ONLINE PROFILE

Your online presence shapes a potential employer's first impression of you. Keep these tips in mind when creating your online profile.

LinkedIn, Handshake, Anteater Network, and other Professional Profiles

OVERVIEW
Employers check these profiles when they want more information about you. LinkedIn is the most popular, with over 40 million student and recent-grad accounts. Employers view Handshake profiles when reaching out for targeted recruiting opportunities.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS
A completed professional profile shows employers you are serious about finding career opportunities. This is your opportunity to market yourself beyond a resume because profiles provide links and highlights in a succinct, easy-to-view page.

Be sure to include: a professional profile image; a brief summary/bio; experience, accomplishments, and education; organizations or groups you belong to; and relevant skills.

Did you know? You can customize your auto-generated LinkedIn URL to one that includes your name (www.LinkedIn.com/in/YourName). Promote your profile by adding this URL to your signature line, business card, or resume.

Social Media Profiles

OVERVIEW
Your social media profiles (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, etc.) can be powerful tools as well. They show potential employers what you’re passionate about, what you do for fun, and additional skills you possess. Social media is also a great way to start the networking process with organizations you’re interested in.

TIPS FOR SUCCESS
Always be mindful of what you post on social media. The words and images you share publicly can show employers that you’re good at communication, teamwork, problem solving, attention to detail, and other important skills. If you’re not willing to curate a professional-friendly, responsible social media profile, consider setting it to private.

Be sure to include: a professional-friendly profile image, a brief bio, links to any online portfolios or projects.

Did you know? If you’re shy about networking in person, start the process by reaching out to an organization through one of their online profiles. Engage with organizations through their social media platforms by commenting on a post, asking questions, or using their hashtags in your own posts.
Whether you are attending a career fair, employer information session, or sitting next to someone at a coffee shop, it is always good to be prepared and have a professional introduction ready. Here are some tips for crafting your own one-minute introduction.

Craft Your One-Minute Introduction

WHO AM I? (e.g., name, university, class standing, major)

Example: Hi, my name is John. I’m a Psychological Sciences major at UCI and I’m graduating next June.

WHAT AM I SEEKING? (e.g., a job or internship, exposure to a certain field, information about an industry)

Example: I’m really interested in a career in Human Resources.

WHAT CAN I OFFER? (e.g., highlight relevant experience, skills, achievements)

Example: I worked as an office assistant last year and oversaw a busy front desk, and helped process new employee paperwork.

WHAT IS MY OBJECTIVE? (e.g., learn about opportunities in a field, start a conversation, make a connection)

• Additional Recommendation: End with a question

Example: I researched [Company Name] and saw that it has entry-level jobs at its L.A. office. Can you tell me more about those opportunities?

Your Turn

One of the best ways to gather information on a career is by talking with professionals who are already working in the field. Conducting an informational interview is learning about a job and seeing if it fits your interests, skills, and personality. An informational interview is not asking for a job, rather it is gaining information about a career.

• FIND PROFESSIONALS TO INTERVIEW
  The easiest way to start is to ask people you already know. Family members, friends, neighbors, teachers, or past coworkers may work in the occupation you want to explore. Utilize social media sites, such as LinkedIn, to identify individuals who are working in your field of interest.

• CONNECT WITH CONTACTS
  After finding people to consult, you are ready to arrange interviews. Contact the people you hope to meet by email, mentioning how you found the person’s name, and making it clear that you want info, not a job.

• PREPARE FOR THE MEETING
  Now that you have an appointment, the next step is to get ready for the interview by researching the occupation and the organization, creating a resume, and developing questions.

• CONDUCT THE INTERVIEW
  Informational interviews are more casual than job interviews, but you should still make a positive and professional first impression. Arrive early, dress professionally and be polite to everyone you meet. After the interview, show your gratitude by writing a thank you note within 24 hours.

• EVALUATE THE CAREER INFORMATION
  Hopefully you’ll leave every informational interview with new insights about the career you want. It is important not to base decisions on the opinions of one individual or company environment. You can further test an occupation through a job shadowing experience or an internship to gain more knowledge before you choose a career.

Suggested Questions
1. How did you get into this field?
2. What do you like most/least about your job?
3. What is a typical day like?
4. What kind of individual (in terms of talent and personality) would be best suited to this position?
5. What advice would you give on applying for and finding a job in this field?
6. Are there any other sources of information you might suggest to learn more about this field?
5 JOB & INTERNSHIP STRATEGIES

A successful job or internship search will utilize several of these strategies:

1. Networking
   - Discuss career goals with people close to you
   - Discuss career goals with faculty, coworkers
   - Conduct informational interviews
   - Attend the Career Discovery Series (Winter Quarter)

   RECOMMENDED RESOURCES: DCP LinkedIn Group (group ID #2961300), OC Networking Directory (ocnetworkingdirectory.com), Campus Organizations (campusorgs.uci.edu), Anteater Network (antnet.uci.edu)

2. Internships
   - Attend internship-related workshops and visit Career Pathways' Internship Coordinator
   - Search for internships on Handshake
   - Visit the Internship Pathways section of career.uci.edu

   RECOMMENDED RESOURCES: Handshake (uci.joinhandshake.com)

3. Internet Postings
   - Search Handshake
   - Review company and employment postings
   - Search job boards specific to your field

   RECOMMENDED RESOURCES: Handshake (uci.joinhandshake.com)

4. On-Campus Recruiting
   - Participate in the On-Campus Interview Program (OCI)
   - Attend Employer Information Sessions

   RECOMMENDED RESOURCES: Handshake (uci.joinhandshake.com)

5. Career Fairs
   - Attend Career Fairs
     - The Division of Career Pathways holds fairs in the fall, winter, and spring quarters
     - Check out fairs in the community

   RECOMMENDED RESOURCES: Career Fairs, Events on Handshake (uci.joinhandshake.com)

DO
- Tailor your resume/cover letter
- Exhaust all of your resources
- Research employers
- Keep track of your correspondence
- Dress professionally
- Consider employment agencies
- Be open to all types of organizations
- Wait to discuss salary until after the offer
- Plan ahead
- Stay encouraged
Take the fast lane toward your career goals with internships.

Reasons to Get an Internship

- Test drive different career options
- Gain hands on experience
- Apply your coursework knowledge to the "real world"
- Build a professional network
- Increase your marketability for future jobs and grad school

How to Land an Internship

- Research your career interests. Narrow your career interests before you begin your internship search in order to target internships based on your major or career goals. There are a multitude of internships and they vary greatly for every career field.

- Seek internship advice. Stop by the UCI Division of Career Pathways during Drop-In Advising hours or make an individual appointment with a career engagement educator or internship coordinator to discuss your personal career goals, ask specific internship questions, and develop an action plan to start your internship search.

- Begin the internship search. Utilize a variety of methods and resources to help you with your internship search.

- Prepare to apply. Research the requirements and the application process for every internship you want to apply for because these may vary. You will most likely need to create a tailored resume and cover letter.

- Practice your interviewing skills. Participate in a practice interview and receive feedback from a trained professional to help you improve your chances of landing the internship.

Internship Search

- Handshake Job & Internship Listings
- On-Campus Interview (OCI) Program
- Career Fairs
- Networking
- Company Websites
- Internship Search Engines
- Division of Career Pathways Internships
- UCI Internship Programs

Maximize Your Internship

Make sure the internship is project-based and you are obtaining meaningful work experience. Deliver high quality work and strive to exceed expectations. Take the initiative to seek additional responsibilities when you have completed your work. Develop mentor relationships with professionals across the organization. Maintain your network after the internship is over for future referrals and letters of recommendation.

Have internship questions? Schedule an appointment with our internship coordinator or a career engagement educator on Handshake (uci.joinhandshake.com).
Evaluating an Internship

1. Does the internship have a defined beginning and end?
2. Is the supervisor experienced in the area in which you are working?
3. Is there a clear learning component (or components) to the internship?
4. Are the skills you will gain applicable to future employment?
5. Will the resources necessary for the internship be provided by the organization?
6. Is there a feedback/evaluation process?
7. Is the internship paid?
8. If unpaid, does the company have at least one person in a full-time role similar to your internship?

If you answered no to any of the questions above, take a moment to think about how valuable this component is to you. If you are unsure, internship advising is a good place to get additional information and insights.

Division of Career Pathways Internship Programs

UCI Internship Programs

You can learn more about the internship programs available at UCI by visiting http://career.uci.edu/students/undergraduate/find-an-internship/uci-internship-programs/
Overall Formatting
- Most are only one page
- 10 to 12 point font
- No unusual fonts
- No colors or logos
- Margins between 0.5 to 1" top, bottom, left and right
- Dates should be right-aligned and it is recommended months are written out
- Must have consistent formatting - bullet points, dates, bolding, italics, etc.
- No tables or templates

Name and Contact Information
- Formal name, at top of page
- For students with a preferred name, list your preferred name in parenthesis. Keep your given name on the resume if it aligns with the email address you choose to list. This helps the employer identify you and prevents any confusion down the road in the hiring process.
  For example:

  PETER ANTEATER
  Irvine, CA 92697  |  (949) 555-5555 | peter@uci.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/peteranteater

  PETER (FRED) STUDENT
  Irvine, CA 92697 | (949) 555-5555 | peter@uci.edu

- Mailing address. You can optionally leave off the street address.
- Phone number
- Email address, either UCI or personal account, as long as it is professional and you check it often
- Optional Links: LinkedIn URL, Github site or online portfolio

Education
- Do not list high school
- Start with University of California, Irvine and graduation date (month and year)
- Formal degree title on next line:
  - Bachelor of Arts in Psychological Science OR B.A. in Psychological Science
- Minor(s) - if applicable
- GPA (if above 3.00) - list this two decimal places and do not round up. Most employers prefer cumulative GPA. Optional: List your major GPA if it is a significant improvement from your cumulative GPA.
- Honors/Awards (Dean's List, Campuswide Honors Program, etc.)
- Optional:
  - Relevant Coursework. List 3-5 course titles (not course codes) required/preferred by employer or directly related to position
  - Community college. Include name of school/program and area of study (listed in same format as your UCI education)
  - Study abroad. Include name of school/program and area of study listed in same format as your UCI education
For example:

University of California, Irvine
Bachelor of Arts in Sociology
GPA: 3.25
June 20XX

Santa Ana College
Associate of Arts in Liberal Arts
GPA: 3.11
May 20XX

University of California, Irvine

University of California Education Abroad Program
Spring 20XX

Related Projects or Related Course Projects - Optional

• List the name of the project and dates of the project on the same line
• Write out bullet-points as if it were an experience (please refer to EXPERIENCE section below)

Business Communication Team Project, Irvine, CA
January 20XX-March 20XX

Company Analysis
• Researched management performance and structure of Company XYZ by conducting online research and interviewing senior-level executives

Fabflix
January 20XX-March 20XX

Co-leader
• Worked in a group of 3 to create a website with functionality similar to Netflix (browsing, searching, and purchasing movies from a remote server)

Experience

• Include your job title, organization name, city and state and dates you worked at that organization
• Bold either the organization name OR the job title (not both)
• Use verb-led phrases to describe your accomplishments and results. Quantify with numbers, percentages (%), money ($), etc.
• List experience in reverse chronological order

Activities, Volunteer Experience or Leadership Experience

• Format the same as you would your work experience
• Include professional societies, Greek affiliations, student organizations, volunteer positions

Skills and Interests - Tangible "Hard" Skills, not "Soft" Skills (e.g. "team player," "attention to detail")

• Computer or laboratory skills
• Language skills - capitalize languages and describe level of competency (i.e. conversational, proficient, fluent, etc.). Do not list "English" when applying to positions in the U.S. as this is assumed
• Optional: Interests (make them interesting, i.e. "ran LA marathon" vs. "running")

RESUME vs. CV

Resumes and curriculum vitae (CV) give an overall picture of your experience, skills, and other important details recruiters may be looking for - with some minor differences:

Resumes

are typically one page summarizing your skills, experiences, and accomplishments. An effective resume succinctly describes your education and experience as it relates to your targeted position.

CVs (Curriculum Vitae)

contain more details than a resume and often include four additional sections:

- research experience
- teaching/mentoring experience
- publications or poster presentations
- references

Adapt your resume into a CV by adding the sections above.

Resume Example Library

Find a variety of resume examples on the Division of Career Pathways' website:

Karen Packard
Recruiting Manager
Enterprise Rent-A-Car
987 Corporation Drive
Irvine, CA 92602

Dear Ms. Packard:

I am a senior majoring in Psychological Science at the University of California, Irvine, and I would like to join the Enterprise Rent-A-Car team as an Entry-level Management Trainee. After reviewing the job description on Handshake and the Enterprise website, I know this position is an excellent match for my interest in sales. I would be excited to bring my enthusiasm to provide the exceptional customer service you pride yourselves in with each of your clients. I was also excited to learn that the core values at Enterprise, such as service, hard work, community, and fun align well with my own work values.

I look forward to applying my strong communication and leadership skills in a management training program. Last year as a Resident Assistant, I worked on a team of 8 members to foster the academic, social, and cultural programming in the residence hall. In this role I was responsible for the well-being of 50 first-year students which helped me develop and refine my management skills. This included making the effort to personally get to know each of my residents by checking in throughout the week to see how they were adjusting to college life. I would not only share my own personal experiences and advice but also connect them with various people, offices and resources on campus. It was through this experience that I became aware of my passion for leadership and teamwork and where I learned the importance of effective interpersonal communication. I am eager to bring these skills as a successful Management Trainee at Enterprise.

I would welcome the opportunity to meet with you and discuss my qualifications in greater detail. Please feel free to contact me at elee@uci.edu or 949.123.4567. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Evan Lee

Mark Lewis
Marketing Manager
XYZ, Inc.
54321 Alphabet Circle
Irvine, CA 92604

Dear Mr. Lewis:

I am writing to be considered for the marketing internship I heard about through a fellow classmate and current Marketing Intern, Zach Jones, at XYZ, Inc. I am a junior at the University of California, Irvine, pursuing a B.A. in Business Administration with a specialization in Marketing. I am very interested in joining your team and using my social media and direct marketing knowledge in a cutting-edge company like XYZ, Inc. After reading the job description and speaking with Zach about his experiences, I am excited about the possibility of helping your company grow its online presence and social media followers through innovative promotions.

My prior experience makes me a great fit for this position. As the Vice President of Membership for the UCI Marketing Club, I increased membership this year by 30% using Facebook and Twitter to reach out to students across the campus. I was successful in doing this by posting videos, photos and testimonials of our past events to showcase the benefits of joining the club. For my project in Marketing Research, I analyzed the marketing campaigns of several of the employers who recruit on our campus to see which methods were most effective for increasing student turnout at their events. Based on these experiences, I have developed a strong understanding of how to connect with the college age community which I am sure would be helpful to increasing this target market for XYZ, Inc.

I have included my resume and look forward to talking with you in more detail about how I might contribute to your team. Please feel free to reach me at anteater@uci.edu or 949.456.7890.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Model Anteater

DRESS FOR AN INTERVIEW

Interview Tips

• Arrive early - you’ll be on time and have a chance to collect your thoughts (try to check in 10 - 15 minutes early)
• Treat all staff members with respect as everyone is a potential co-worker
• Silence your cell phone and dispose of any gum
• Make sure your hair and outfit are neat and refrain from using any heavy fragrances (your interviewer may be allergic)
• Keep bags and satchels on the floor, close to your seat
• Alert references that they may be contacted soon and send each a copy of the job description and your resume

FAQs - Dressing for the Interview

• How do I find out what the proper attire is for an upcoming interview?
  You can contact the human resources department of the company and ask them what is appropriate. Keep in mind that some technical companies encourage their applicants to dress more casually. Ask for clarification as to what is acceptable. Is it khakis and a polo shirt? Slacks and a button-down shirt?

• I have an interview scheduled and they told me that I can dress business casual. What should I wear?
  Even though an employer tells you that you can wear business casual attire, it is highly recommended that you dress in formal attire. It demonstrates professionalism and maturity.

• Suits are too expensive for me and I know I have to wear one for interviews. What should I do?
  There are many stores available that sell quality suits at discounted prices. Some students will borrow their friend's suit if they have an interview coming up and are not able to go shopping, but your friend's suit may fit you differently. Working Wardrobe offers a package deal for UCI students (see details at career.uci.edu).

• What if the recruiters or company employees dress casually during career fairs or on-campus interviews?
  Employers what to see if you are able to represent yourself professionally. Therefore it is recommended that you wear formal attire to the interview.

• Can I wear a shirt and tie without a jacket?
  Wearing a shirt and tie without a jacket would be considered business casual and is not appropriate for interviews.

• Should I wear a skirt suit or a pants suit?
  Either a matching skirt or pants is acceptable to wear. Make sure that you are comfortable in whichever suit you choose to wear.

A FINAL CHECK

Make sure that you have...

• Neatly trimmed hair
• Clothes free of holes, snags, missing buttons, or lint
• Close-toed shoes (polished)
• Appropriate jewelry if wearing
• Clean hands and fingernails

NEED CLOTHING?

Working Wardrobes is a local non-profit which offers UC Irvine students a package deal for professional interview attire. See details at career.uci.edu.
10 Rules of Interviewing

1. RESEARCH THE ORGANIZATION: Demonstrate knowledge of the company by including information from your research in your answers. The organization's website and LinkedIn are great places to start.

2. MAKE A STRONG FIRST IMPRESSION: Get the interview off to a good start by being on time and greeting the interviewer with a smile and a confident handshake.

3. KEEP YOUR RESPONSES FOCUSED: Your answers should be between 30 seconds and 2 minutes long.

4. USE STRONG EXAMPLES AND QUANTIFY WHEN POSSIBLE: Show the interviewer that you have certain qualities and skills, rather than telling them, by providing specific examples. Including measurable information gives you greater credibility.

5. REPEAT YOUR STRENGTHS: Know your top three strengths as they relate to the position, and reiterate them throughout the interview. Remember to include strong examples of your strengths.

6. PREPARE SUCCESS STORIES: Fully developed examples from previous experiences can help you respond to any behavioral interview question an employer may ask.

7. PUT YOURSELF ON THEIR TEAM: Show that you are a good fit by positioning yourself as a member of the team. Use organization-specific language and refer to products and services.

8. ASK QUESTIONS: By asking questions, you convey interest and enthusiasm to the interviewer. Avoid questions regarding salary and benefits.

9. FOLLOW UP: Send a thank you note within 24 hours to the interviewer restating your interest and thanking them for their time.

10. EVALUATE THE INTERVIEW: Reflect on your experience and review your performance. What went well? What can improve?

WHAT TO BRING
- Padfolio, notebook and pen
- Copies of your resume

Typical Interview Questions

PERSONAL
• Tell me about yourself
• What are your major strengths and weaknesses?
• What motivates you to put forth your greatest effort?
• What achievements from your past work experience are you most proud of?

SCHOOL BACKGROUND
• How does your college education relate to this job?
• What extracurricular activities did you participate in and what did you learn from those experiences?
• What was the most difficult course you took? How did you handle it?

WORK EXPERIENCE
• What prior work experience have you had and how does it relate to this job?
• How would your past supervisors describe you?
• What were your most significant accomplishments in your prior work experience?
• What did you enjoy most about your previous work experience? Least?

EMPLOYER KNOWLEDGE
• Why are you interested in this position?
• Why are you interested in this particular company?
• What attracts you to this particular industry?

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES
• Please describe your ideal work setting
• What major accomplishments would you like to achieve in your life and why?
• What are your career interests?

BEHAVIORAL QUESTIONS - USE BART (Background, Action, Result, Tie it back)
• Tell me about a difficult situation and how you resolved it
• Describe a situation when you had multiple tasks to complete under very tight time constraints
• Describe a time when you sold your colleague/supervisor on an idea
• Tell me about a time when you worked on a project as part of a team. What role did you play?
• Describe a time when you failed at something. What would you have done differently?
• Describe a situation when you took a leadership role

SAMPLE QUESTIONS TO ASK
- How is job performance measured?
- What are the biggest challenges associated with this position?
- What would a typical project/assignment be like?
- How would you describe the ideal employee?
- What additional qualities does the job require that we haven’t discussed?

During the Interview
• Arrive early - 10-15 minutes before the interview
• Greet the employer and/or associates with a confident smile and handshake
• When responding to questions, organize your thoughts and then answer
  - Give examples using BART (Background, Action, Result, Tie it back to the position)
  - Answers should be positive/concise
  - Do not identify a weakness essential to the job
• Prepare for commonly asked interview questions and potential questions to ask the interviewer
• Practice aloud
• Review your resume

After the Interview
• Ask questions - have 3-5 prepared
• Thank the interviewer and determine next steps
• Reaffirm your interest in the position
• Ask for a business card and send a thank you letter or email within 24 hours
• Re-evaluate interview questions and your responses - reflect on your performance and take notes for future reference
Behavior-Based Questions

Behavioral interviews are a way for employers to seek proof that you can do what you say you can do. The theory behind behavioral interviews is that the best predictor of future performance is past performance. Behavioral interview questions require the interviewee to provide concrete examples of times they have performed the skills needed for the job.

The B-A-R-T Approach: Background, Action, Results, and Tie Back

Answer behavioral interview questions with the "BART" approach to keep your responses concise and organized. Use the table below to help develop your answers.

Example: Tell me about a time you demonstrated leadership.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BACKGROUND</th>
<th>ACTION</th>
<th>RESULT</th>
<th>TIE BACK</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Briefly describe the situation relating to the skill</td>
<td>What did YOU specifically do in the situation to demonstrate the skill?</td>
<td>What was the result of your actions? Should always be positive</td>
<td>Connect what you learned from this experience back to the position</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>~20 seconds</td>
<td>~45-60 seconds</td>
<td>~20 seconds</td>
<td>~5-10 seconds</td>

Last year I was the VP of Membership for the American Marketing Association. During the fall quarter, I developed and implemented a marketing campaign to increase awareness about our club on campus and grow our membership. I organized outreach tables, made announcements in management classes and sent out weekly emails to publicize our events. As a result, we doubled our membership from 25 to 50 members over the course of 4 months. What I learned from this experience is marketing is effective not only via email and online, but for students, incredibly effective to meet them where they are. This is something I can and am eager to do as a Campus Brand Ambassador for your company.

Jose Bejar
UCI Alumnus
BA Psychology and Social Behavior and Criminology, Law and Society
Americorps Member Team Leader, City Year Los Angeles

HOW HAS UC IRVINE SHAPED YOUR CAREER?

“Going into college, I knew once I graduated I wanted to give back to my community in Los Angeles. As a first-generation Latino, coming to UCI was a privilege I worked hard for. However, my first two years at college were difficult for me. I felt like I was not prepared enough to be here. My ELA and math skills were not as great as some of my peers and I was not used to the rigor like they were. I kept this in the back of my head. Fast forward to my 4th year, my experience as a Peer Consultant made me realize that I find it fulfilling to help others. During my last year at UCI, I wanted to become a Career Counselor. At the same time, my experience at UCI Extended Day Center opened my eyes to the inequity there is in education. I definitely noticed the huge gap in skills between the students there and the students back in LA. I acknowledged that these students have more resources than the students back home did. I shared this experience with the career engagement educators and expressed how I wanted to give back to my community. They connected me with Natasha, the City Year recruiter at UCI, and I applied to City Year!”

DO YOU HAVE ANY ADVICE FOR SOMEONE EXPLORING CAREER PATHS?

“Tell everyone what type of job you’re looking for. It’s nice to have multiple people reach out to you about opportunities they hear about and think you’d be a good fit for.”

“I learned the most by talking to the career engagement educators. They always had insightful advice and reached out to me about opportunities they thought I would be a great fit for.”

WHAT IS YOUR CURRENT ROLE?

“I am currently a Team Leader for City Year Los Angeles. My main role is to support the First Year AmeriCorps Members. I also assist my Program Manager and help run the after-school program.”

WHAT DO YOU FIND CHALLENGING? WHAT DO YOU ENJOY MOST?

“Some of the challenges in this position are remaining emotionally constant and being responsive to conflict instead of resistant. The days can be long sometimes and it can be difficult avoiding getting too emotionally invested. That said, I enjoy forming relationships with the students and seeing the light bulb moment when they understand something. It’s great to watch them grow.”
Thank You Correspondence

When to Send a Thank You

• After meeting with an employer such as at an information session, career fair, panel event, etc.
• After a job or internship interview
• After someone helps you with your job search process (e.g., refers your resume to someone else, offers to introduce you to someone in their network, etc.)

Format

• It is acceptable and sometimes even preferred to use email, since it is the quickest way to correspond. This is especially the case following an interview if they are making decisions quickly
• You may also send handwritten thank you cards or letters, when appropriate, in addition to the email
• If you interviewed with multiple interviewers, send a unique email/letter to each person
• Keep it clear, concise and free of typos or grammatical errors

Content

• Thank the employer or networking contact for their time and anything specific they shared in terms of advice, resources, referrals, etc.
• Express gratitude for the opportunity to interview or for job search assistance
• Reaffirm your interest in their company, employer, or industry
• Jog the person’s memory to remind them of your conversation and mention aspects of the interview, conversation or meeting that were of particular interest to show you were listening
• Clarify an answer or add something that you may not have mentioned during the interview or conversation that is relevant to your job search or to your application

Dear Mr. Reyes,

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me this morning about your experience working as a Transportation Planner with the City of Irvine. I was excited to hear of the variety of responsibilities you have from planning and budgeting, to collaborating with so many colleagues across departments. I will definitely look into the resources you shared with me and will also reach out to Mr. Gomez with the County of Orange Transportation Department soon. I appreciate the great advice and for introducing me to someone within your network.

Thank you again for your time and I look forward to staying in touch.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Cho,

Thank you for the opportunity to interview for the Laboratory Assistant position at Allergan. After learning more about the specific projects and responsibilities, I am very eager to bring my laboratory experience and analytical skills to help you with ongoing and future projects. As mentioned, having worked at the Beckman Laser Institute & Medical Clinic last summer, I have been successful in working collaboratively with other colleagues under tight deadlines while maintaining a high attention to detail.

Please let me know if you need any additional information as you are making decisions. Thank you again for your consideration and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

“Networking throughout the years has allowed me to become more comfortable speaking with people who are older and more experienced than me. This has been highly valuable because I have multiple people I can always reach out to for mentorship and guidance.”

EVALUATING COMPANY BENEFITS

After months of searching, weeks of interviewing, finally - success! You got an offer, or maybe you were very successful and got more than one. Now what? Before you accept or reject, take time to evaluate the offer(s). Don't be swayed by salary alone; consider the entire compensation package. Ask for a few days to think it over. Companies offer both hard and soft benefits - some are negotiable, some are not.

Hard Benefits

1. INSURANCE
   This may include: medical, dental, vision, prescriptions, disability, and life insurance. What would your monthly premium or payment per visit be? How much would it cost to add a family member to your plan?

2. RETIREMENT
   Does your company offer 401(k) or an equivalent? Do they contribute to a retirement account?

3. FLEXIBLE SPENDING ACCOUNTS
   Tax-free dollars to pay for dependent care/certain medical expenses

4. VACATION TIME AND SICK TIME

5. RELOCATION EXPENSES

6. CHILD/ELDER CARE

7. TUITION REIMBURSEMENT

Soft Benefits

1. DRESS CODE
   Business casual and dress-down Fridays

2. FLEX TIME

3. WORK FROM HOME/REMOTE

4. CORPORATE CULTURE

5. COMPANY GYM

6. EMPLOYEE DISCOUNTS

7. INVESTMENT AND STOCK OPTIONS

8. START DATE

FACTORS FOR CONSIDERATION

- Nature of the work
- Organizational culture
- Level of autonomy
- Travel
- Salary
- Mentoring
- Workplace diversity
- Stability of organization
- Quality of higher management
- Support for continuing education/advanced degree
- Prestige of organization
- Cost of living
- Level of responsibility
- Location
- Work hours
- Benefits
- Variety of work
- Stability of industry
- Advancement opportunities
- Training and development opportunities
- Opportunities to learn and grow in the job/company
- Transferability of skills/experience from job
- Work/life balance

If you need more information to make the decision, ask the company to tell you more. Many companies have benefit specialists in Human Resources who can guide you through the process. Also, ask your employed family and friends for their perspective.

Once you make your decision, call your contact to accept, state the terms you agreed to and your starting date. Ask them to send a letter outlining your agreement. If you are rejecting the offer, politely thank them for their time and interest.
Congratulations! You got the offer! Now what?

PREPARE
- Use tools such as glassdoor.com and salary.com to find salary ranges and averages for specific positions and companies. Be sure to research by region as cost of living can impact salary.
- Assess your costs including housing, gas, food, loans, etc. Knowing your needs allows you to assess if an offer is sufficient, or if you need to adjust your expenditures.
- Examine other elements of your offer and prioritize them. You may be able to negotiate things other than salary.
- If you aren’t sure if it is appropriate to negotiate in your field, just ask! Reach out to colleagues or mentors, or ask your contact at the company. The worst they can say is “no.”

Tips During Negotiation
- YOU DON’T HAVE TO ACCEPT IMMEDIATELY
  Ask your company contact for their deadline and take time to examine the full compensation package. Ask for the offer in writing/email as well.
- NEGOTIATION IS A PROCESS, NOT A DEMAND
  Have a salary range that you feel comfortable asking for, and be ready to negotiate other elements if salary is non-negotiable.
- KNOW YOUR VALUE TO THE COMPANY
  You need to be able to justify why you are worth more, so think of what specific skills and experiences you bring that make you worth it.

Declining an Offer
- EXPRESS GRATITUDE
  Thank the company for their time and interest in you. You want to maintain a positive relationship with the company in case you decide to work for them in the future.
- PROVIDE AN EXPLANATION
  Briefly explain why you are declining and avoid saying anything negative about the company as your reason.

Receiving Multiple Offers
- CAREFULLY COMPARE EACH OFFER
  If you receive more than one offer, look at the strengths and weaknesses of each, not just salary.
- IF THE OFFER FROM YOUR LESS PREFERRED COMPANY IS BETTER
  Try to use your offer to bargain for a better offer from your first choice. Be careful about how you approach the negotiations and be prepared for your preferred company to say they can’t match the other offer. Do not misrepresent the other offer, since the company may ask to see it before responding to your request.
- PROCEED WITH CAUTION
  Do not attempt to pit companies against each other to create a bidding war. You want to start your new job on a positive note. If the negotiations are not handled correctly, the relationship can be soured and potentially result in the company withdrawing your offer.

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS WHEN ACCEPTING THE OFFER
- Once you accept an offer, you have made a commitment to work for that company. After accepting an offer, you should stop interviewing at other companies. If you are not ready to make that decision, ask the company making the offer to give you more time to consider before responding.
- Do not begin negotiations until you are ready to accept. Once you enter into negotiations, the company will expect you to accept the offer once you have agreed on the terms.
So you have landed your first position or internship! Making the transition from being a student to a professional can be a difficult one. There are strategies that you can follow to establish a positive first impression and ensure you are viewed as a colleague with career potential.

Why Does Being a Professional Matter?

- Helps to maintain positive communication
- Avoids misunderstandings
- Makes the workplace more satisfying and stress-free
- Enhances career potential

First Impressions Matter

People develop first impressions within a matter of minutes. Here are some tips to ensure you are making a positive first impression:

- Shake hands and smile as you greet people. Have a firm handshake to demonstrate confidence
- Look people in the eye when you are talking to them and demonstrate open body language
- Try to remember people’s names. You may wish to make notes after meeting people with names and context
- Arrive on time! It is always impressive to arrive a bit early to work and meetings. If you cannot avoid running late, let your supervisor know
- Dress appropriately for the position. If you are unsure about dress code, ask your supervisor or human resources

“Professional is not a label you give yourself - it’s a description you hope others will apply to you.”

- David Maister
Phone, Email, and Social Media Etiquette

- Make sure your phone is on vibrate or "Do Not Disturb"
- Your employer and colleagues should be your #1 priority, not your phone calls, texts or emails. Find out what the office policy is regarding phone/email use in the workplace. Some may not allow a phone to be visible or used during your workday
- Business emails should always use formal language (not texting language and emoticons)
- Always include salutations and closings in emails
- Utilize the subject line of emails to include a short and specific description of your message
- Consistently check and respond to business messages
- Be very careful with "Reply All" and "BCC"
- Always double-check spelling, grammar, punctuation, and content before hitting "Send"
- On social media profiles, remain professional and avoid posting inappropriate comments or photos
- Use online search engines to check your online presence and see what shows up
- If you wouldn't say it in person, don't say it on social media

Overall Tips

- When beginning a new position, be an observer. Learn the company culture and respect others prior to making judgments
- Treat others with kindness and respect
- Be careful with your topics of conversation; avoid discussing politics, religion, and money

UC IRVINE ALUMNI PROFILE

Christian Johnson
UCI Alumnus, MBA
Leadership Development Program, Edwards Lifesciences
CEO, Seed Consulting Group
Forbes Nonprofit Council

HOW HAS UC IRVINE SHAPED YOUR CAREER?

“UCI had an influential impact on redirecting my career path toward working in a company that I am proud and honored to work for every day. The career exploration process at UCI helped me to evaluate which companies were built upon a purpose, values, and aspirations that align strongly with my own. Through that process, I discovered Edwards Lifesciences. I applied for a summer MBA internship at Edwards, fell in love with the company, and decided that I would continue pursuing a career at Edwards.”
