

Overall Formatting

- Most are only one page
- 10 to 12 point font
- No unusual fonts
- No colors or logos
- Margins between 0.5" to 1" top, bottom, left, and right
- Dates should be right-aligned and it is recommended months are written out
- Must have consistent formatting – bullet points, dates, bolding, italics, etc.
- No tables or templates

Name and Contact Information

- Formal name, at top of page
- For students with a preferred name, list your preferred name in parenthesis. Keep your given name on the resume if it aligns with the email address you choose to list. This helps the employer identify you and prevents any confusion down the road in the hiring process.

For example:

PETER ANTEATER

Irvine, CA 92697 | (949) 555-5555 | peter@uci.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/peteranteater

PETER (FRED) STUDENT

Irvine, CA 92697 | (949) 555-5555 | peter@uci.edu

- If you would like to include your pronouns on your resume, you can add them under your name
- Mailing address. You can optionally leave off the street address
- Phone number
- Email address, either UCI or personal account, as long as it is professional and you check it often
- Optional Links: LinkedIn URL, Github site or online portfolio

Education

- Do not list high school
- Start with University of California, Irvine and graduation date (month and year)
- Formal degree title on next line:
 - For example: Bachelor of Arts in Psychological Science OR B.A. in Psychological Science
- Minor(s) – if applicable
- GPA (if above 3.00) – list this two decimal places and do not round up. Most employers prefer cumulative
- Honors/Awards (Dean's List, Campuswide Honors Program, etc.)
- Optional:
 - Relevant Coursework. List 3-5 course titles (not course codes) required/preferred by employer or directly related to position
 - Community college. Include name of school/program and area of study (listed in same format as your UCI education)
 - Study abroad. Include name of school/program and area of study listed in same format as your UCI education

Experience

- Include your job title, organization name, city and state, and the dates you worked at that organization
- Bold either the organization name OR the job title (not both)
- Use verb-led phrases to describe your accomplishments and results. Quantify with numbers, percentages (%), money ($), etc.

Activities, Volunteer Experience or Leadership Experience

- Format the same as you would your work experience
- Include professional societies, Greek affiliations, student organizations, volunteer positions

Skills and Interests – Tangible “Hard” Skills, not “Soft” Skills (e.g. “team player,” “attention to detail”)

- Computer or laboratory skills
- Language skills – capitalize languages and describe level of competency (i.e.g conversational, proficient, fluent, etc.). Do not list “English” when applying to positions in the U.S. as this is assumed
- Optional: Interests (make them interesting, i.e. “ran LA marathon” vs. “running”)
